

Received from David Thomson (pupil 1952-1953), HOD Mathematics, Dean, timetabler (1971-1980), books for the Mount Albert Grammar School Archives - 18 June 2015.

1. Men in Black (Moa, Auckland 1978, 390pp)
10¾ x 8½ in x 1½ in / 270mm x 225mm x 40mm

Co-authored by NAC (Neville) McMillan (pupil 1936-1940, history teacher 1949-1955).
The book gives details of every international rugby match by New Zealand from 19 August 1903 – 19 November 1997. Each game is on two facing pages.

2. The Encyclopedia of New Zealand Rugby. Also co-authored by NAC McMillan and published by Moa in 1981, 442pp. It has the same dimensions as the other book and it is a detailed statistics-laden pen-portraits of each player.

On the inside flap of the dust-jacket of both books is a short biography and photograph of Neville McMillan.

N.A.C. McMillan

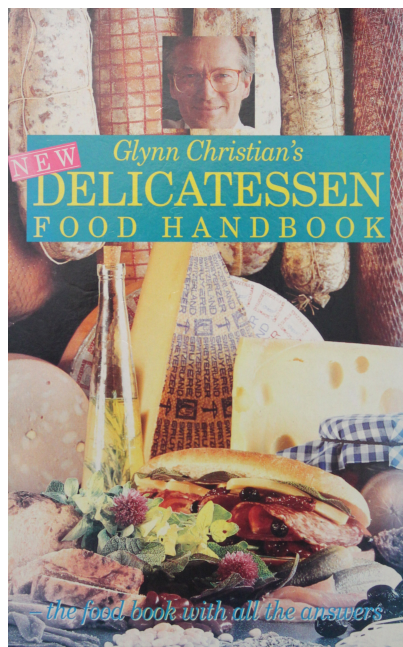

Neville McMillan was born at Auckland in 1922 and was educated at Henderson School, Mt Albert Grammar School and Auckland University College, where he graduated M.A. in history. He taught at Mt Albert Grammar School from 1949 to 1955 and then transferred to Auckland Grammar School, where he has been senior history master since 1962.

He played club Rugby at various levels and has coached junior secondary school teams since 1950. He was an Auckland Under-16 selector from 1972 to 1976 and the chairman of the Auckland Secondary Schools' Rugby Union from 1974 to 1976, and convenor of selectors from 1977.

3. Glynn Christian's Delicatessen Food Handbook.
(Good Food Retailing Publications, Caterham, Surrey, 1993. 362pp.)
7¾ x 5 in / 195mm x 125mm

by Glynn Christian (1955-1957). It is not really a receipt book but more a narrative/encyclopedia of delicatessen food (sensu lato).

Glynn established Mr Christian's Delicatessen in Elgin Crescent, Notting Hill, London in 1974. It combines the New York style deli with the British specialty grocer's shop.

As Glynn has many other irons in the fire he is no longer involved with the shop.

Brian Murphy